

ARE NOT GOOD DEMOCRATS, SAYS MURPHY OF THOSE WHO HAVE BOLTED HEARST.

Unseated at Buffalo, Williams and Ahearn
Are in Control of Their Districts Here
Under the Primary Law—Sulzer,
Fornes and Harrison for Congress.

Charles F. Murphy came back from Buffalo yesterday morning, and going directly to the Fourteenth street headquarters remained there until the early afternoon. Many of the district leaders called on him, one of them being Thomas E. Rush of the Twenty-ninth district, who bolted the Tammany caucus at Buffalo when the resolution to enforce the unit rule was introduced, and who voted against the nomination of William R. Hearst. Mr. Murphy and Mr. Rush talked together for some time, and at the end of their conference said that they had been conferring on campaign details and that the name of Mr. Hearst was not brought up.

Mr. Murphy professed to regard with indifference the bolting of Hearst by Mayor McClellan and other Democrats, who in the last two days have declared that, while they will vote the Democratic ticket they will cut Hearst at the polls.

"No good Democrat has bolted Hearst," Mr. Murphy said, laying stress on the adjective, when the announcement of Mayor McClellan was brought to his attention, as well as the resignation of James J. Martin from the Tammany Hall executive committee. "I have not read Mr. McClellan's statement, but I have been told all about it, and I have no comment to make on it."

Mr. Murphy admitted that while he had been able to prevent the secession of the McClellan leaders and delegates from the Seventeenth, Nineteenth and Thirtieth districts in the Buffalo convention, he would be powerless to stop Ross Williams of the Seventeenth and James Ahearn of the Nineteenth, the two McClellan men elected at the primaries to the leadership of those districts, from nominating their candidates for the Assembly.

"Mr. Williams and Mr. Ahearn," Boss Murphy said, "will be able to nominate their candidates for the Assembly because they have received their certificates of election from the Board of Elections and they will have to be regarded as the leaders of their districts, despite the action of the Democratic State convention. But there is a different situation up in the Thirtieth district. Nagle claims the election over Cowan, but the returns from the election districts are not yet all in, and for that reason the Board of Elections has refused to issue a certificate to Nagle. That means that there will be a contest when the convention for the nomination of an Assemblyman is held."

Mr. Murphy said that he would probably not be a formal notification to Mr. Hearst of his nomination. In the excitement following the nomination the convention adjourned without appointing a committee on notification.

The date for the Tammany Hall ratification meeting has not yet been fixed, and it is doubtful if the ratification will take place before the third week in October. Mr. Hearst has promised to attend the meeting and to make a speech. It will be the first time that he has ever been seen in Tammany Hall. So far as Mr. Murphy and Secretary Tom Smith are aware, Mr. Hearst has never even set foot yet in the Williams.

The Tammany Congress district conventions will be held on the night of October 2. William Sulzer will be re-nominated from the Tenth district without any opposition on the part of Tammany. Big Tim Sullivan will not be a candidate for re-nomination in the Eighth district. It will be the first time that he has ever been seen in Tammany Hall. So far as Mr. Murphy and Secretary Tom Smith are aware, Mr. Hearst has never even set foot yet in the Williams.

ONIDA REPUBLICANS SPLIT. Likely to Be Two Ticket Conventions and Two Tickets.

UTICA, Sept. 29.—The Republicans of Onida county are at present in the worst tangle in their political history, and all because the Utica Republicans demand fair representation in the county conventions which the Republicans of the city of Rome and the rest of the county will not concede it.

To-day was the time set for the county convention to meet and name candidates for the offices of Sheriff, Surrogate, Senator, etc., but the candidates were not placed in nomination. Several court cases were being argued by the leaders in the factional fight which for months has disrupted the Republican organization hereabouts effectually preventing the holding of a county convention, and incidentally widened the breach to an extent which bodes ill for the Republican ticket in November.

The county convention was called to order in Rome to-day as per schedule, but that was as far as it got. The convention was blocked by two court orders, one secured by the county Republicans, which restrained Chairman Coggeshall from placing the sixty-six delegates from Utica on the convention roll. This was an alternative to the holding of the county convention, and incidentally widened the breach to an extent which bodes ill for the Republican ticket in November.

In the meantime it is expected that the courts will settle the question of representation in conventions as between Utica and the rest of the county, and it is possible that the nominations of candidates on the county ticket will then be proceeded with. But this plan is not assured, however.

Chairman Coggeshall of the county Republican committee waived his position in the convention to-day and permitted the Utica delegates to be placed on the roll. The Utica delegates then proceeded to the county convention, and the Utica delegates then proceeded to the county convention, and the Utica delegates then proceeded to the county convention.

The feeling between the Utica Republicans and the Republicans of the rest of the county is as bitter as it can be, and as neither side will concede a single point the disintegration of the Republican organization in Onida county appears imminent unless some compromise is reached or some other person in authority gets busy with a "big stick."

STATE COMMITTEE MOVES.

Mr. Hughes to Have His Quarters on Second Floor of New House.

The headquarters of the Republican State committee were moved yesterday from the Fifth Avenue Hotel to 12 East Thirtieth street, a private house which Timothy L. Woodruff, the new chairman of the committee, has leased for a term of years. The State committee has made its home at the Fifth Avenue Hotel since 1899, when Alonzo B. Cornell was chairman, except from 1881 to 1886, when James C. Warren, then the chairman, moved the headquarters to the Gilsey House. It was in this year that James O. Blaine was defeated for the Presidency. When Mr. Woodruff was asked yesterday if he had no superstition, he replied:

"Not a bit. There is going to be a lot of hard work done in this campaign, and in order to properly organize and carry out our plans it was necessary to move into some place less public than a large hotel. In the new headquarters at the Fifth Avenue Hotel they were all standing on each other's heads and it was impossible to do efficient work."

A large force of workmen were employed yesterday in making repairs and improvements and it is expected that this work will be finished by next Wednesday, when the new Republican State committee will meet in the place. Mr. Woodruff has selected for his office the walnut wainscoted dining room at the first floor, and as this room has already been prepared for him he was able to occupy it yesterday and to continue his work without a break. Mr. Hughes will move his headquarters to the second floor. The back of the building almost touches the rear of the Little Church Around the Corner.

"We still have sanctity with us, if we have left the Amen Corner," said one of the officials.

ELLISON'S VOTE FOR HUGHES.

Head of the Water Department Takes the Mayor's View.

Commissioner Ellison of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, who is a friend of the Sullivan and who is understood to have been appointed last January to his office on the personal recommendation of Big Tim Sullivan, said yesterday:

"I am in entire accord with Mayor McClellan in his determination not to vote for Mr. Hearst."

"For the same reason that prompted me to vote against Mr. Hearst last year I will vote for Mr. Hughes this year."

"I think that the real interests of the State require the election of Mr. Hughes, and as I have always been an independent voter, I will vote for him this year, as heretofore, vote for that candidate who in my opinion, will best serve the State."

Furthermore, I do not think Mr. Hearst was the real choice of the convention that nominated him. In my opinion, had delegates lawfully elected not been unseated and a free vote been given to the delegates left in the convention the result would have been vastly different.

"There is no question of 'regularity' with me, as I am not a member of any political organization and have not been in years."

Col. M. Clarence Padden is now the Water Register and it was because of his years of fidelity to the service of Big Tim that he landed the job. Frank J. Goodwin, the Justice of the Peace, and Joseph P. Prendergast, who divides the leadership of the Twenty-fifth district with George Scannell, is the second in command. Both were supporters of Murphy at Buffalo.

HUGHES WORKING ON SPEECH.

Will Keep Busy on It at Home for a Few Days—Many Callers.

Charles E. Hughes spent the entire day yesterday at his home, 570 West End avenue. He has begun work on his speech of acceptance and will be busy for the next day or two with it.

Mr. Hughes had a good many callers yesterday, the most of them friends and neighbors who had not had an opportunity before to congratulate him.

State Chairman Woodruff said yesterday that Mr. Hughes was impatient to begin his campaign. "It has not yet been agreed, however," Mr. Woodruff said, "when Mr. Hughes will start through the State. All that has been determined upon with regard to the campaign is that Mr. Hughes will speak in Buffalo on October 10, and it is probable that that will mark the opening of his tour of the country."

The complete itinerary will be decided upon at next Wednesday's meeting of the State committee."

GOMPERS APPEALS FOR FUNDS.

Asks Union Labor to Put Up $250,000 for Political Campaigns.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—An appeal for individual contributions amounting to $250,000 from Chicago members of trade unions, to be used in the political fight which the American Federation expects to wage this fall against political candidates hostile to the aims of organized labor, was made to-day by President Samuel Gompers.

Copies of the appeal were received to-day by secretaries of all local unions with the request that the matter be brought at once to the attention of the members.

The notice is also published in the Federationist, the official organ of the American Federation of Labor. It bears the signatures of Gompers and all the vice-presidents of the national body, including that of John Mitchell, who is said not to favor the present political propaganda.

The amount asked for, it is stated, will be necessary to defray the expenses of the campaign, and union men everywhere are requested to contribute. The generosity of the response, it is stated, will determine the extent to which the federation mixes in politics before the meeting of the annual convention at Minneapolis on November 12.

WADSWORTH HAS OPPOSITION.

An Independent Republican Running for Congress Against Him.

BUFFALO, Sept. 29.—The Democrats and Republicans of the Thirty-fourth Congress district held their conventions at Niagara Falls to-day and nominated, respectively, Peter A. Porter and James W. Wadsworth. Mr. Porter is an independent Republican and the candidate of the Independence League.

There are five counties in the district, Niagara, Wyoming, Orleans, Livingston and Genesee. No opposition to Wadsworth developed on the floor of the convention, but when Wyoming county was called the chairman of the delegation announced that the county would cast its seven votes blank. The opposition to Wadsworth in Wyoming has been particularly bitter on the part of the Grangers for his stand on the meat inspection bill in Congress and his alleged hostility to the President in the packing house investigation.

Montgomery County Republican Ticket.
AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The Republicans of Montgomery county this afternoon at Fondra nominated this ticket: Member of Assembly, Thomas Romeyn Staley of the town of Florida; County Judge, Joseph L. Moore of Fort Plain; Surrogate, W. Fenton Myers of Amsterdam. The Hearst League also held a convention this afternoon and nominated Elmer D. Howard of Amsterdam for Member of Assembly. The regular Democratic convention will be held Monday, when it is expected that the nomination of Mr. Howard will be endorsed and the balance of the ticket made out, which the Hearstites will probably endorse.

TROUBLE OVER JUDGESHIPS.

MR. MURPHY INCLINED TO RE-SIST THE HEARST DEMAND

For Four or Five Places on the State—Said to Have Asked Giegerich and Connolly to Get Off the Lawyers' Ticket—Republicans Inclined to Adopt That Ticket.

The Tammany judiciary convention is to be held on October 10 and the Republican judiciary convention is to assemble on October 11. These two judiciary conventions promise to be one of the most important features of the local political campaign. Charles F. Murphy, it was stated last night by those who had talked with him, had decided to request Charles Connolly and Leonard A. Giegerich to retire from the ticket known as the lawyers' ticket. Mr. Connolly for many years has been chief Assistant Corporation Counsel. He has always been a Tammany man. Justice Giegerich is just closing his first term of fourteen years. He, too, is a Tammany man. Mr. Murphy, it was stated by his confidential friends, objects very seriously to the slightest inkling that he will either renounce Justice Giegerich or nominate Mr. Connolly.

Mr. Murphy, it was learned, is very much bothered over the details of an amicable settlement with all hands concerning the ten places on the Supreme Court bench of the county to be filled this fall. All told there are about fifty candidates for each place. Most of the places, it is said, were promised many times over, at Buffalo in return for support of State committeemen and delegates to the convention. Friends of Big Tim and Little Tim Sullivan did not hesitate to say yesterday that the Sullivan had a promise of two of the places and that the bargain must be kept with them, no matter how anybody else fares.

William R. Hearst and his lieutenants are described as insisting that they must have at least four of these Supreme Court Justice nominations in return for throwing overboard the tail of the Independence League ticket. Mr. Hearst's agents said last night that they wished to make it very plain that they must either have four or five places on Tammany's judiciary ticket and that John Ford certainly must have a place because he has been retained by the League ticket as a candidate for Attorney-General. The other Hearst candidates for Supreme Court Justice on Mr. Murphy's ticket must be, Mr. Hearst's friends claim, either Samuel Seabury and Thomas Gilligan, who was on the Hearst ticket last fall for Borough President, or Clarence J. Shearn, Mr. Hearst's personal counsel and Mr. Hearst's candidate for District Attorney last fall, may be nominated as one of the Supreme Court Justices, according to Mr. Hearst's friends last night, if he cares for the distinction, but they went on to say that they were rather saving Mr. Shearn to become District Attorney of the county, "when Gov. Hearst removes Mr. Jerome."

The insistence of the Hearst people on either four or five places on the Supreme Court Justice slate is a matter which Mr. Murphy, who believed that when he nominated Mr. Hearst for Governor at Buffalo Mr. Hearst would abandon all interference in the local campaign in New York county.

Mr. Murphy did not think that Mr. Hearst would make any demands on him for nominations for Supreme Court Justice. Mr. Murphy was stated, had positively promised T. C. C. Train one of the places and could fill the entire nine places remaining many times over. Mr. Murphy was declared, will resist the Hearst demands for nominations on his judiciary ticket. He is very sore, it was stated yesterday, that he considers the efforts of the Hearst people to drive a hard bargain with him.

Concerning the Republican judiciary convention it was stated last night by Republicans who said that they were aware of what is going on that there is every probability that the Republican county convention under President Hearst's leadership will accept the lawyers' ticket in its entirety. Mr. Hughes, who was one of the committee to the lawyers' ticket, is inclined to approve the suggestions already made to him and to Mr. Parsons that the lawyers' ticket be accepted by the county organization.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY
Considering the Names of Two Hearst
Men for Judgeships.

A special convention of the Independent Labor Party, which was attended by ten delegates from each Assembly district, was held last night in Beethoven Hall, 210 Fifth street, to take up the question of nomination of candidates for the county judgeships. Shortly after it began chosen delegates came out saying their credentials had been held up on the ground that they were affiliated with another party, and that the credentials were investigated.

There were so many suggested nominations for judges that the meeting became bewildered. It was stated at an early hour this morning that the names of Judge John Ford for Judges of the Supreme Court were under consideration.

SENATOR GATES BOLTS.

Defected for Republican Nomination He Announces His Independent Candidacy.

UTICA, Sept. 29.—Senator Francis H. Gates, defeated by Thomas B. Lewis of Fulton for the Republican nomination for Senator in the Oswego-Madison district, has announced his independent candidacy for the office. He has been nominated by the Prohibitionists, and it is said will be endorsed by the Democrats. An independent certificate will be filed with the Secretary of State within a week. The work of organizing the district will begin at once. The Madison county Republicans who have charge of Senator Gates' campaign believe that they have no doubt of the result. In Oswego county the square deal Republicans have already organized the county for their independent ticket. Senator Gates is on the ticket.

JACOB BRENNER IN CHARGE.

State Chairman Woodruff Too Busy to Give Attention to Brooklyn.

Each night since the adjournment of the Saratoga convention half a dozen or more Republican ratification meetings have been held in Brooklyn and the ticket enthusiastically endorsed. Inasmuch as Mr. Woodruff will be fully occupied with the State campaign the local management will be in the hands of Chairman Jacob Brenner of the executive committee.

The first big campaign rally will be held on Saturday evening at Prospect Hall, in South Brooklyn, with Mr. Hughes as the chief speaker. After the meeting there will be a reception to the candidates at the Union League Club.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The Republicans of Montgomery county this afternoon at Fondra nominated this ticket: Member of Assembly, Thomas Romeyn Staley of the town of Florida; County Judge, Joseph L. Moore of Fort Plain; Surrogate, W. Fenton Myers of Amsterdam. The Hearst League also held a convention this afternoon and nominated Elmer D. Howard of Amsterdam for Member of Assembly. The regular Democratic convention will be held Monday, when it is expected that the nomination of Mr. Howard will be endorsed and the balance of the ticket made out, which the Hearstites will probably endorse.

ONLY ONE HEARST TICKET.

And the Buffalo Ticket Will Appear Under the Hearst Emblem as Well as the Star
—10,000 Votes in That Column Will Make the League into a State Party.

The executive committee of the Independence League at a meeting held at the Gilsey House yesterday decided to go ahead with the proposition to put an Independence League ticket in the field by petition. But all the candidates selected at the league's convention in Carnegie Hall on September 12, except those who were nominated with Mr. Hearst at Buffalo, have been dropped from the list and in place of them has been substituted the Democratic list.

In the event of 10,000 votes being cast under the emblem of the Independence League that organization would become under the law a regular State party, and two years from now it would be entitled to a column on the ballot and to nominate its candidates in convention instead of by petition.

At yesterday's meeting letters were read from John Ford, C. H. W. Auel and Frank L. Getman, the league's candidates for Attorney-General, State Comptroller and State Engineer, asking that their names be withdrawn from the list of candidates chosen at the Carnegie Hall convention.

After the resignations were accepted the committee proceeded to adopt resolution pledging the Independence League to cooperate with the Democratic party "and to make common cause with the Democratic party in the interests of good government."

There were so many suggested nominations for judges that the meeting became bewildered. It was stated at an early hour this morning that the names of Judge John Ford for Judges of the Supreme Court were under consideration.

The necessary steps will be taken this week to place legally in nomination by petition the full State ticket of the Independence League, as now constituted after the withdrawals of Messrs. Ford, Auel, Fuller and Getman and the substitution in their places of Messrs. Jackson, Glynn, Hauser and Skene. For the purpose of placing in nomination the candidates of the league it is necessary to procure nominating petitions. The petition must be signed by at least six thousand electors, of whom at least fifty must come from each county in the State. This completed petition must be filed in the office of the Secretary of State at Albany by October 12, 1906. The filing of this petition will place the league in nomination for the purpose of procuring these petitions meetings of ratification will be held every county in the State during the week and at these meetings signatures will be procured. The petition will be completed and filed on October 11.

"Hearst is not a Democrat, and he does not advocate Democratic principles and never did. The Democratic party is not a socialist party, and it never has been. Mr. Hearst has opposed the Democratic party and its candidates. He bolted the Democratic party for Mayor of New York last fall, and his action in that regard is only in harmony with what he has been doing for some years, trying to rule or ruin the Democratic party."

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Former County Judge and Surrogate Henry V. Borst of this city, in an interview to-night with THE SUN correspondent, referred as follows to William Randolph Hearst, the Democratic nominee for Governor:

"Hearst is not a Democrat, and he does not advocate Democratic principles and never did. The Democratic party is not a socialist party, and it never has been. that we are not under any obligation to vote for Hearst because his name will appear under the star on the Democratic ticket. I believe that we need a good man in the executive chair of Albany at this time, one not tainted with socialism or the ideas expressed by Hearst from time to time through his New York newspaper—ideas which are so repugnant to every good citizen of the republic. I have voted for every Democratic candidate for Governor that has been nominated in this State for thirty years. My ancestors have all been Democrats, but as Democrats we should not vote for Hearst. The suggestion made by Democrats that we city to hold a public meeting in order that they may make known their opposition to Hearst meets with my hearty approval."

Carlisle and Judge Parker, and with a single exception was the only one to advocate on the stump in Montgomery county the election of Bryan. The stand taken by Judge Borst against Hearst will have much weight with Democrats of the Mohawk Valley.

HEARST ALWAYS A FREEBOOTER.
"New Haven Register" (Democratic), Justice Mayor McClellan's Bolt.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 29.—The New Haven Register (Independent Democratic) to-night had the following editorial comment:

"In refusing to vote for Hearst Mayor McClellan repudiates him as a Democrat."

"Is he justified by the facts in doing so? Most decidedly. Hearst has from the first been a freebooter in politics, not hesitating to run on independent lines shaped by himself and in complete disregard of the interests of the Democratic party."

"He financed and otherwise organized the Municipal Ownership party and ran as its candidate for Mayor of New York, receiving, we admit, an enormous vote. When that organization no longer suited his purposes he financed and organized the Independence League, whose candidate for Governor he is."

"As the candidate of the Democratic party he brutally says that he does not care a rap for its platform; he is his own platform and will say and do what he pleases. When that organization no longer suited his purposes he financed and otherwise organized the Independence League, whose candidate for Governor he is."

"Among the number of prominent bolters whose names were mentioned to-day were Superintendent of Charities Patrick Redmond, a lifelong Democrat, and his three sons, one of whom is Deputy City Treasurer; Police Sergeant Edward J. Siney; Charles H. Tubbs and many others. A number of the laboring class in the Republican party will vote for Hearst."

Tammany Society Meeting.
The Tammany Society will hold a meeting to-morrow night at Tammany Hall. W. Bourke Cockran will preside for the first time since he was elected Grand Sachem last summer. Charles F. Murphy has also promised to attend the meeting. Mr. Murphy said yesterday that so far as he knew nothing but business related to the affairs of the society would come up for consideration.
